REPORTS

Police, fire, library OWL (Katie Nitcher is President), LMH Fellowship class, Children's Community Center and Children's Learning Center need to be invited; Heartland needs to be notified of date. S. Heiman to do so. 2) LMH has purchased a house at 4th & Michigan.
- LAN Report. Discussed the city's traffic management program and its upcoming meeting (see 2nd business item); the parking violations on-line survey has been sent to PNA residents; the KU stadium gateway project was highlighted; LAN's Facebook page is being rejuvenated; suggestions on meeting topics were taken. NOTE: Land Development Code Steering Committee is seeking community feedback through its on-line Meeting-in-a-Box tool. It would be especially relevant to be used at a PNA meeting or as an exercise for the PNA officers. There isn't an opportunity to get the officers together to complete it; officers who can are encouraged to complete it on their own, and its link will be pushed out to the neighborhood to also participate. Deadline is Sept. 15.

BUSINESS ITEMS

- Neighborhood Signage: Watkins Museum director Steve Nowak provided input and feedback to signage. A suggestion to add tribal information on the signage was overwhelmingly endorsed. The final copy will be sent back to S. Nowak and then to the City for development.
- Traffic Management Meeting. The program is in its early stages. Its goal is to develop a smoother and simpler process to address calming devices and other strategies for neighborhood traffic issues.
- Lawrence Loop Committee. Lori Lange and Larry Irick (he also leads Friends of Lawrence Trails) are PNA's representatives on the LLC. Kate Curl is also invited to participate. Final construction of the loop has not begun.
- Pallet Shelter Village. A new city Communications and Community Engagement Specialist, Millie Pageau, reported via email on Aug. 3 that a layout plan has been completed, hygiene and laundry trailers will be reused from a current houseless site, and PNA will have input into standards for tenancy. The Task Force has not yet met. Since PNA has not been kept informed of this project's progress, P. Englehart has been empowered to send a strong communication to the city spelling out PNA's expectations. Motion to authorize Phil Englehart to provide a written communication to the City on behalf of PNA (and possibly CLC and Woodcreek) specifying our expectations on communications regarding this project was made by P. Miller, 2nd by J. Spence. Voice/hand-raise vote. Motion carries.
- Crossing Guards. There is a city-wide need for school crossing guards. PNA needs to check into the possible promise by the school district to provide bus service to school for displaced Pinckney Elementary Students.
